GENERAL INFORMATION ON LURAY CAVERNS

WELCOME!

Luray Caverns is open every day of the year. Self guided tours depart immediately, and guests are asked to maintain social distancing. There might be a short wait to enter the Caverns as we work through social distancing guidelines.

General Admission includes Luray Caverns, the Car and Carriage Museum, Toy Town Junction, and Shenandoah Heritage Village. Please stay in groups of two or more so everyone is accounted for.

Food and drink are not permitted in the Caverns. We have snack and dining options available in our Welcome Center.

The Caverns temperature is a constant 54 degrees with a very high humidity that makes it feel like 65 degrees. Most people prefer a light jacket while in the Caverns. We recommend wearing comfortable walking shoes.

Cameras. Bring them. You are welcome to take photos.

The Stalacpipe Organ is played live during each tour by an automated system. Manual performances from the console are given on special occasions.

Wheelchair Access. Our new "step-free" facility will accommodate wheelchairs; however, Luray is not designated as a handicapped accessible facility. The paved walkways on the tour are 1.25 in length with some areas having moderate grades that may require assistance for visitors with disabilities. This assistance is not provided by Luray Caverns.
